

BOSTON WINS FROM BROOKLYN

Superbas Are Whitewashed by Pittinger, Who Wins His Twelfth Straight Game 4 to 0.

The Batting Order. Brooklyn. Keeler, 1st; Dahlen, 2d; Flood, 3d; Lush, 4th; Tenney, 5th; Evans, 6th; Pittinger, 7th; Umpire—Brown.

SOUTH END GROUNDS, BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 29.—The Bostonians came home from their last Western trip this morning and brought Hanlon's Superbas with them for a series of two games.

The two clubs arrived on the same train, the Beaneaters from Wilmington, N. J., where they were trimmed in an exhibition game, and the Trolley Dodgers from Atlantic City, where they won their third straight from the All Star College nine yesterday.

Experiences were swapped until bedtime. In the course of which Gene Denon denied that he had jumped to the Washington American club. He asked Charley Ebbets to give him a job with the Superbas next year, but the Brooklyn magnate gave him a very emphatic "No." Gene was not at all dissatisfied, saying he was obliged to Ebbets for speaking right out like a man. The chances are greatly against Denon's playing with Boston another year.

Ned Hanlon joined the Trolley Dodgers here this morning, nursing a bad cold, which at one time threatened pneumonia. He left the team suddenly at Atlantic City and it was supposed he had gone on another gamut expedition. Instead he went to Brighton Beach and to bed. The cold is all foxy Ned can show for his trip to Philadelphia last Monday to land Harry Davis, Bradley and Gochenaer, of the American League. He denies having signed Wallace or Heidrick, but is confident of landing a few American League stars yet. He may give first baseman Deal, of the Wilmingtons, a try.

Good baseball weather prevailed today, but despite the fact that the Trolley Dodgers were making their farewell appearance here the attendance was small.

Brooklyn presented a midist team with a pitcher on first base, and looked easy for the Beaneaters. Though Boston is thirty-six points behind the Superbas, Al Buckenberger still has designs on second place, and thinks his bunch can crowd the Trolley Dodgers out of the race.

Pittinger, the twirler, who has won his last eleven games, was ticketed for the firing line. Ebbets and Hughes warmed up for the Brooklyn.

When the teams arrived on the field the captains were notified of the suspension of Jimmy Sheppard and Gene DeMontville each two days. The trouble dates back to the series in Pittsburgh, where both Sheppard and DeMontville got into a mix-up with one Arthur Irwin, whose umpiring did not please the players in question.

Luckily for Hanlon Duke Farrell, reported for duty before the Superbas started for the grounds and he was placed at first base. Willie Hildner, who was sent to the outer garden, Dexter took DeMont's place at second.

Keeler laced a beauty to centre for a base. Dahlen fanned, Donovan struck out. No runs.

Dexter was out, Irwin to Farrell. Flood handed over Tenney's slow grounder. Cooley sent a fly to Keeler. No runs.

Second Inning. Flood sent a grounder to Tenney and was extinguished at first. Tenney squeezed Irwin's drooping liner. Farrell drove a single. A base. Lush to Dexter, forcing Farrell at second. No runs.

Carney was safe on Flood's fumble. Keeler lost Greninger's soarer in the sun, but Willie nailed Carney at second. Lush was fielded out at first by Lush. Greninger reaching second. Long fled out to Dolan. No runs.

Third Inning. Evans struck out. Keeler fouled to

LAST BIG CYCLE MEET AT THE BEACH TO-MORROW

Champion Kramer and Major Taylor Will Once More Fight It Out.

The outdoor cycle racing season in this city will come to a close at Manhattan Beach to-morrow with a National Circuit Championship meet. The feature of the programme will be the one-third mile circuit championship, in which all the crack professional riders will compete.

The two stars of the circuit, Champion Frank Kramer and Major Taylor, the dusky whirlwind, have been bitter rivals all the season for first honors, and though Kramer easily leads in points, through his having started in the circuit long before his colored rival, he has several times taken the measure of the champion. During the past two weeks the meetings between this pair of flyers have created considerable feeling, owing to the methods pursued by them to gain advantage in the race, and to-morrow's race is expected to prove the most exciting, as consideration will be given to the methods pursued by them to gain advantage in the race, and to-morrow's race is expected to prove the most exciting, as consideration will be given to the methods pursued by them to gain advantage in the race.

Among the entries to the other events are J. A. Ruddy, L. Goodwin, H. Brooker, Dave Bratton, J. Swapp, J. A. Wenck, T. E. Kitching, H. B. Warren and Howard Ryan. Altogether there are twenty-four entries in the programme, which promises to be the best held in the ocean this season.

GREAT PACERS MATCHED TO MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY. Prince Albert and Anasconda Will Have It Out at Hartford.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Aug. 29.—Prince Albert, 2:00 3/4, and Anasconda, 2:01 3/4, have been matched for a special race at the Grand Circuit meeting at Hartford, Conn. The race will be run on Wednesday.

COMISKEY FIRES GARVIN. Chicago Pitcher Got Into Shooting Scrape Last Night.

CHICAGO, Aug. 29.—Charles A. Comiskey, President of the White Stockings Baseball team of the American League, today unconditionally dismissed pitcher Virgil Garvin from further service with the club. The cause assigned was Garvin's conduct last night when he shot and slightly wounded a bartender and knocked a policeman unconscious with a blow from his pistol.

TIE IN BIG SHOOTING TOURNAMENT AT SEA GIRT

Hot Race Between Fourth and Second New Jersey Regiments—U. S. A. Team Coming.

(Special to The Evening World.) RIFLE RANGE, SEA GIRT, Aug. 29.—The National and New Jersey Rifle Associations and the United States Rifle Association opened their annual ten days' shoot here this morning with competing teams from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, District of Columbia, Ohio, and the United States Marine Corps.

The team of the best dozen shots from the United States Army, which was to come here from the Fort Sheridan, matches, but which got away on furlough through the oversight of the War Department, will not get here, says Brig-Gen. W. H. Carter, acting for the Secretary of War. He informs Gen. Spencer, however, that efforts are being made to send a team from the Department of the East.

A welcome addition to the field is the Governor's Horse Guards, of Atlanta, Ga. Not since the '99 dispute over the Hilton trophy, which two or three Savannah members of the team alleged was stolen by New Jersey, has there been a Georgian team at the range. The Horse Guard members, who never charged the Jerseymen with unfairness, tried to get here last year, but Savannah influence held up the Governor's permission as it did not do this year.

Two matches were on today's programme—the Columbia Trophy and the New Jersey National Guard, open only to members of the New Jersey National Guard and Naval Reserve. The contests were respectively five and ten shots at 200 and 500 yards. The contestants were teams of six from the First, Second, Third and Fourth Regiments.

Tie in First Event. The first stage of the Columbia Trophy match was a hot race between the Fourth and Second Regiments, which tied at 120. The First Regiment took second place, with 118, and the Third was two points behind. The individual scores of the tied teams were: Fourth Regiment—Capt. C. H. Sprinkled, 20; Sergt. J. F. McGinnis, 18; Corp. H. L. Smith, 21; Private P. Chare, 30.

TROTTLING AT LIBERTY. Speedwar Horses Will Compete There Sept. 3 and 4.

LIBERTY, N. Y., Aug. 29.—The series of trotting races to be held in the village of Liberty, in Sullivan County, Sept. 3 and 4 are attracting widespread attention throughout the western part of this State. The liberal purses offered have drawn the owners of the best trotting horses in the State, and many close and exciting contests of speed are looked forward to.

Many spectators from the New York City and vicinity will attend the races, and many of the crack horses of the Speedway will be in the field. The races are 2:25 and 2:40 classes. All entries close with George W. Murphy on Sept. 1, at Liberty, N. Y.

Scant Yard Separated Great Cyclists in Championship Event at Springfield—Schrieber Also a Winner.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 29.—Frank Kramer won the one-third mile national professional championship from Major Taylor by a scant yard at the Coliseum last night before 2,000 people. Iver Lawton, being third and George H. Collett fourth. George C. Schrieber, of New York, won the two-mile professional event.

The race was marred by the failure of the officials to properly attend to their duties, only a mile and five laps being ridden in the second heat.

An interesting football match was played at Deal Beach on Sunday, between C. H. Croker and S. M. Allen, of the Deal Golf Club, and Archibald Graham and W. D. Kirker, of the N. J. Jersey Country Club. The former, whose loss ball was 75, won by 1 up. The best ball of Graham and Kirker was 78.
